II. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity refers to an essential quality that an institution must uphold to fulfill its academic objective and hence its violation constitutes a serious offence. The principles of academic integrity form an integral part of the code of conduct to which all the students of the institution must adhere. Breach of this code puts into question both the reputation of the Institution and the value of the degree awarded to the students. Every pupil teacher should be responsible to ensure the highest quality of the academic integrity.

Students are assigned to various committees as members and they have to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of specific committee within the stipulated time.

The principles of academic integrity require the student should:

1. Do work (submission of assignments, organizing activity, tutorials, etc.) according to the prescribed time.
2. Properly acknowledge all contributions or references to a given piece of work. Make sure that all assignments submitted are original.
3. Have right to pursue their educational goals without interference.
